Infilink - Industrial Automation Software

The HMI/SCADA software for today's "Open", IIoT connected world

Infilink from KEP is a feature rich Industrial Automation – HMI/SCADA software for today's "Open", IIoT (Industrial Internet of Things) connected world.

It connects with all programmable logic controllers (PLCs) to provide an easy to use, open, scalable, secure platform to optimize the value of your operation.

Designed for small- to medium-sized PLC applications, the Infilink software offers the latest in HMI monitoring, communication, trending and datalogging.

Key Features:

- free design mode for drag-and-drop application design
- graphical library, import of drawing tools, buttons, animation wizards
- historical and real-time trending, datalogger, customizable alarms, scheduler
- KEP ServerEX PLC driver included
- OCP webserver client functionality, SQL integration
- E-Mail and Web enabled: send e-mail and view tag data over the internet
- remote Android and IOS access
- opt. All-In-One HMI/Scada Panel PC
- machine based - multi-process - enterprise software solutions